Based on a corresponding recommendation from the Audit Committee, the Supervisory Board proposes that the following resolution be adopted:

The appointment of KPMG AG, Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft, Berlin, Germany, as auditor and Group auditor for the financial year 2016.

6. Resolution on approval of a control and profit and loss transfer agreement with Schwarzer Familienholding GmbH

On April 11, 2016, MLP AG concluded a control and profit and loss transfer agreement with Schwarzer Familienholding GmbH (referred to as "SFH" in the following). The shareholder meeting of SFH has already approved the revised control and profit and loss transfer agreement. The control and profit and loss transfer agreement only comes into effect following approval of the MLP AG Annual General Meeting and entry of its existence into the SFH Commercial Register.

The Executive Board and Supervisory Board propose the following:

The control and profit and loss transfer agreement from April 11, 2016, between MLP AG and SFH is approved.

The control and profit and loss transfer agreement (referred to as "Agreement" in the following) has the following key content:

- SFH subordinates the management of its company to MLP AG. MLP AG is therefore authorised to issue instructions to the management at SFH with regard to the management of its business. These instructions may be issued generally or for a specific case and must be submitted in writing. Any instructions issued verbally must be immediately confirmed in writing. The management at SFH is obliged to follow the instructions issued by MLP in all respects, insofar as said instructions do not conflict with mandatory corporate, commercial or accounting legislation. Notwithstanding the right to issue directives and instructions, the management and representation of SFH remain incumbent upon that company's management team. The right to issue directives and instructions does not apply to the maintenance, amendment or termination of the Agreement.

- SFH is obliged to transfer its entire profit to MLP AG, determined according to applicable commercial regulations in compliance with §§ 291 et seq. of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), in particular § 300 No. 1 and § 301 in their valid versions, as well as in compliance with the following restrictions:
 - (i) Subject to approval by MLP AG, SFH can only add funds from its profit after tax to other retained earnings insofar as this is permitted under commercial law and economically justified based on reasonable and prudent business judgement. Other retained earnings established during the term of the Agreement are to be dissolved on request of MLP AG and either used to compensate for an annual loss or transferred as profit. The reversal of other retained earnings for the purpose of profit transfer is subject to the condition that an appropriate level of liable shareholders' equity is available at SFH. The transfer of funds from the reversal of other retained earnings formed prior to the Agreement coming into effect is excluded.
 - (ii) The profit transfer obligation applies for the first time to the entire profit of the financial year in which the Agreement comes into effect. It is due at the end of each financial year and interest is to be charged on the amount due at a rate of 0.5% above the respective year's base rate from this time onwards. If the Agreement expires during a financial year of SFH, the profit transfer is to be paid pro rata temporis.
- Pursuant to § 302 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) in its currently valid as amended, MLP AG is obliged to compensate any annual deficits recorded by SFH, insofar as these deficits cannot be compensated – as described above in the second indent in (i) Sentence 2 – by drawing on other retained earnings set up for this purpose during the term of the Agreement. § 302 (3) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) as amended from time to time is applied to the claim for compensation and § 302 (4) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) as amended from time to time is applied to the period of limitation. (The current version of § 302 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) reads as follows: (1) "If a control or profit and loss transfer agreement is in place, the other contracting party must compensate for any annual loss otherwise occurring throughout the term of the contract insofar as this cannot be compensated by withdrawing funds from other retained earnings that were added to these throughout the term of the contract." (2) "If a dependent company has outsourced or otherwise handed over responsibility for its operations to the controlling company, the controlling company must compensate for any annual loss otherwise occurring throughout the term of the contract insofar as the agreed consideration does not reach the appropriate level of compensation." (3) "The company may only waive or settle the claim for compensation three years after the day on which entry of the termination of the contract in the commercial register is announced pursuant to § 10 of the German Commercial Code (HGB). This does not apply if the party obliged to pay the compensation is insolvent and has a composition agreement with its creditors in order to avoid insolvency proceedings or if the obligation is agreed upon in an insolvency plan. The waiving or settlement is only effective if the minority shareholders approve it through a special resolution, unless a minority whose shares together account for one tenth of the share capital represented at the resolution raises objections in writing." (4) "The claims resulting from these regulations are subject to a time limitation of ten years from the day on which the entry of termination of the contract in the commercial register pursuant to § 10 of the German Commercial Code (HGB) is announced.").

The claim for loss compensation is due at the end of each financial year and interest is to be charged on the amount due at a rate of 0.5% above the respective year's base rate from this time onwards.

- Irrespective of the waiver of all compensation claims declared by the only minority shareholder pursuant to § 304 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), MLP AG is obliged to pay the minority shareholders annual compensation of € 1 (in words: one euro) for each share held by them in the capital stock of € 6,562 for the term of the Agreement. In other words, MLP AG must pay annual compensation of € 1/6,562 (in words: one six thousand five hundred and sixty secondth of a euro) for each share of € 1 of the capital stock. The claim for payment of the compensation is due on approval of SFH's annual financial statements. In addition it can be noted that no claims for compensation pursuant to § 305 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) exist.
- In order to be valid, the Agreement requires the approval of both the MLP AG Annual General Meeting and the SFH Annual General Meeting. The Agreement comes into force when entered in the commercial register at the local court where SFH has its registered office.
- The Agreement remains in place and valid for the period up to expiry of five calendar years from the start of the SFH financial year for which the stipulated profit transfer obligation first applies. In the event that the end of this five-year period falls on a date within a running fiscal year of SFH, for example as a result of the creation of a short fiscal year, the Agreement will cease upon the expiry of that fiscal year. The Agreement is extended by one year at a time if it has not been terminated by one of the contracting parties by no later than six months prior to its expiry.
- The right to terminate the Agreement for an important reason without observing a notice period remains unaffected by this. MLP AG is, in particular, authorised to terminate the Agreement for an important reason, if it no longer holds the majority of the voting rights based on its shares in SFH.
- The Agreement contains a standard severability clause for the eventuality that individual provisions of the Agreement become ineffective/unfeasible or that the Agreement contains a loophole.

At the time of signing the Agreement, MLP AG holds a 75 percent stake in SFH and also holds these shares (unchanged) at the time of the Annual General Meeting. The remaining 25 percent of the shares, which carry neither voting nor dividend rights, is owned by Mr. Gerhard Schwarzer, Aukrug, who has already assigned these conditionally to MLP AG and will therefore only retain a stake in SFH until December 31, 2016 at the latest. In a notarised declaration, Mr. Schwarzer has waived his right to any and all potential compensation claims pursuant to § 304 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). Should mandatory legal regulations stipulate that he is still entitled to submit claims during the term of this Agreement, MLP AG is obliged – as also presented above – to pay annual compensation of € 1 (in words: one euro) for each stake of €6,562.

With respect to the fact that Mr. Schwarzer, as the only minority shareholder (see above), has already sold his remaining shares in SFH to MLP AG and these are to be transferred to MLP AG by no later than January 1, 2017, the Agreement does not grant any severance payment claims pursuant to § 305 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).

The control and profit and loss transfer agreement dated April 11, 2016, the financial statements and the management reports for the last three financial years of the contracting parties, on the condition that these reports were to be drafted, the joint report of the Executive Board at MLP AG and management at SFH drafted pursuant to § 293a of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), as well as the audit report drafted by Deloitte & Touche GmbH, Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft, Munich, Germany, pursuant to § 293e of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) can be accessed via the company's website at <http://www.mlp-agm.com> as soon as the Annual General Meeting has been convened. They will also be available for viewing during the Annual General Meeting or can be accessed online on one of the terminals made available by MLP AG.

Prerequisites for attending the Annual General Meeting and for exercising voting rights

Participation at the Annual General Meeting

Only those shareholders are entitled to attend the Annual General Meeting and vote who have registered in the due time prior to the Annual General Meeting in accordance with Article 15 of MLP AG's Articles of Association and identified themselves through documentation of their shareholding prepared in writing (§ 126b of the German Civil Code (BGB)) in German or English by their custodial bank for the beginning of May 26, 2016, that is 0.00 a.m. (record date). The registration and proof of entitlement must be submitted to the Company in writing (§ 126b of the German Civil Code (BGB)) in German or English at the following address by no later than the end, that is 12:00 midnight, of June 9, 2016.

Significance of the record date

A person is deemed to be a shareholder in relations with the Company for the purpose of attending the Annual General Meeting and exercising voting rights only if proof of their shareholding, as described above (see the "Participation at the Annual General Meeting" section above), has been furnished. The right to participate and the scope of the voting rights are measured exclusively based on the shares held as of the record date. The record date does not involve any lock-up period for the shares. Even in the event of sale of some or all of the shares after the record date, only the shares held by the shareholder as of the record date are authoritative for participation and the scope of voting rights. As such, the sale of shares after the record date has no effect on the right to participate nor on the scope of voting rights. The same applies to purchases and additional purchases of shares after the record date.

Procedure for postal voting

Shareholders who do not wish to attend the Annual General Meeting in person can cast their votes by postal ballot using the procedure described in the following. However, this also requires registration and submission of proof of share ownership before the stated deadline (see the "Participation at the Annual General Meeting" section above). The form printed on the entry ticket can be used for postal voting. Votes cast by postal ballot must include the entry ticket number and be submitted to the Company no later than the end, that is 12:00 midnight, of June 13, 2016 using the following address, fax number or e-mail address:

MLP AG
c/o Computershare Operations Center
80249 München
Fax: +49 (0)89 30903-74675
E-mail: MLP-Hauptversammlung2016@computershare.de

Shareholders registering properly and in time for the Annual General Meeting are also sent a form together with their entry ticket, which can be used for postal voting.

Postal votes can only be cast on resolutions (including any amendments) proposed by the Executive Board and/or Supervisory Board and to resolutions proposed by shareholders that have been announced as an addition to the agenda in line with § 122 (2) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).

Votes cast by postal ballot can be amended or retracted no later than the end, that is 12:00 midnight, of June 13, 2016 (receipt at the Company), by post using the aforementioned address, by fax using the aforementioned fax number or electronically using the aforementioned e-mail address. Amendments/retractions of postal votes need to include the original postal vote or state the entry ticket number to ensure correct assignment. Amendments/retractions which cannot be assigned to any voter will not be taken into account. The right to participate in the Annual General Meeting remains unaffected by this. Should a shareholder who has already cast votes by postal ballot subsequently wish to attend the Annual General Meeting and exercise his voting rights in person or through a proxy, this is possible, although any votes cast by postal ballot will then become void.

Authorised financial institutions, shareholders' associations and persons of equal standing pursuant to § 135 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) can also all use the postal voting system.

Procedure for voting by proxy

a) Option to vote by proxy

Shareholders also have the option of exercising their voting rights at the Annual General Meeting by proxy, e.g. by the custodian bank, a shareholders' association, a company-appointed proxy or other third parties of their choice. In this case, too, a timely registration by the shareholder and submission of proof of shareholding is required (see the "Participation at the Annual General Meeting" section above). Proxy authorisation may be granted by way of a declaration made to the authorised proxy or to the Company.

If the shareholder authorises more than one person, the Company may, pursuant to § 134 (3) Sentence 2 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), reject one or more of said persons.

b) Form of proxy authorisation

The granting of proxy authorisation, its revocation and proof of authorisation for submission to the Company must be made in writing (§ 126b of the German Civil Code (BGB)) if the proxy authorised to exercise the voting right is neither a financial institution, a shareholders' association, any other person or association equivalent to a financial institution pursuant to § 135 (8) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) nor an equivalent institute or company pursuant to § 135 (10) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).

Proxy authorisation may also be granted to financial institutions, shareholders' associations or any persons, entities, institutes or companies considered equivalent pursuant to § 135 (8) or (10) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) in any other manner permissible in accordance with § 135 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). Nonetheless, we wish to point out that in such instances, these financial institutions, persons, associations, institutes and companies to be authorised may require a particular form of proxy authorisation because they are required under § 135 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) to produce a verifiable proxy authorisation. If you therefore wish to authorise a financial institution, a shareholders' association or any persons, entities, institutes or companies considered equivalent pursuant to § 135 (8) or (10) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) to act as a proxy, you should agree a potential form of authorisation with said institutions or persons. Reference is made to the process pursuant to § 135 (1) Sentence 5 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).

c) Company-appointed proxies, special provisions regarding their authorisation

The Company offers its shareholders the opportunity to authorise a company-appointed proxy prior to the Annual General Meeting. Shareholders who wish to authorise the company-appointed proxy can use the form printed on the entry ticket to the Annual General Meeting for this purpose. The proxy exercises voting rights exclusively on the basis of the instructions received from the respective shareholder. Authorisations and instructions can also be issued during the Annual General Meeting.

In any cases where postal votes (see the "Procedure for postal voting" section above) have been cast in addition to the company-appointed proxy having been instructed to vote on behalf of a shareholder, priority is given to the postal votes. The company-appointed proxy will then not exercise said voting rights. The company-appointed proxy will also not exercise the voting rights assigned to him if the shares in question are being represented by a participant present at the venue of the Annual General Meeting (the shareholder or his representative).

d) Further information on the procedure of voting by proxy

The following address, telefax number or e-mail address is available for declaring the granting of proxy authorisation to the Company, its revocation and also for submitting proof of proxy authorisation assigned to an authorised agent, as well as its revocation:

c/o Computershare Operations Center
80249 München
Fax: +49 (0)89 30903-74675
E-mail: MLP-Hauptversammlung2016@computershare.de

To facilitate the organisation of the Annual General Meeting, shareholders wishing to authorise company-appointed proxies are requested to submit this authorisation including voting instructions, if they are not issued during the Annual General Meeting, by post, fax or e-mail no later than the end, i.e. 12:00 midnight, of June 13, 2016 (receipt at the Company).

Shareholders who have registered properly and in time for the Annual General Meeting will receive forms, which can be used to grant proxy authorisation, together with their entry ticket.

Partial live streaming from the Annual General Meeting on the internet

All shareholders of the Company and the interested public can follow the Annual General Meeting on June 16, 2016 until the end of the Chairman of the Executive Board's speech in a live stream which is due to commence at approximately 10.00 a.m. Please go to <http://www.mlp-agm.com>. Only this speech will be broadcast. There will be no stream of any other parts of the Annual General Meeting.

Motions for additions to the agenda pursuant to § 122 (2) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG)

Shareholders whose shareholdings when taken together amount to at least one twentieth of the share capital or the pro rata amount of €500,000.00 (the latter corresponds to 500,000 shares) can request items to be added to the agenda and made public. Each new item must be accompanied by a justification or a proposed resolution. The request must be submitted in writing to the Executive Board and the Company at least 30 days prior to the Annual General Meeting, whereby the day of receipt and the day of the Annual General Meeting itself are not counted, meaning that all information must be received no later than midnight, that is 12:00 midnight, of May 16, 2016. Any requests for additions to the agenda received after this cut-off point will not be considered. § 142 (2) Sentence 2 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), which stipulates that the persons submitting the application must demonstrate that they have held the shares for at least three months prior to the day of the Annual General Meeting and that they continue to hold the shares until the decision regarding the application has been reached, is applied accordingly pursuant to § 122 (2) Sentence 1, (1) Sentence 3 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) in the version still applicable for this Annual General Meeting as per § 26h (4) of the Introductory Act for the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). If the persons submitting the requests for additions to the agenda have held the number of shares necessary to reach the quorum (see above) at least in the time from the start, that is 0.00 a.m., of March 16, 2016, until the start, that is 0.00 a.m., of the day on which the supplementary request was sent out, this will satisfy the Company's requirements in terms of proof of shareholding. The share ownership times of third parties are calculated in line with § 70 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).

The request for additions to the agenda can be sent to the following address:

MLP AG
Executive Board

69168 Wiesloch

Additions to the agenda that are to be announced are published without delay in the Federal Gazette (Bundesanzeiger) and disseminated throughout Europe after the corresponding request has been received by the Company.

Any and all motions for additions to the agenda arriving at the Company after the Annual General Meeting has been convened are also made available immediately after their receipt at the Company via the website <http://www.mlp-agm.com>, assuming they are to be considered.

Counter-motions of shareholders at the Annual General Meeting in the sense of § 126 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) which reach the Company no later than 14 days prior to the day of the Annual General Meeting, whereby the day of receipt and the day of the actual Annual General Meeting are not counted, meaning that they must be received at the latest by the end, that is 12:00 midnight, of June 1, 2016, and meet all other requirements with regard to the Company's disclosure obligations, will be published immediately, including the name of the shareholder, the justifications behind the counterproposal and any statement by the Company's management, on the Company's website at <http://www.mlp-agm.com> (§ 126 (1) Sentence 3 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG)).

Pursuant to § 126 (2) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), there are justifications which, when applicable, do not require a counter-motion or the justification for said motion to be made available via the website. These are described on the Company's website, together with further notes on shareholders' right pursuant to § 126 (1) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) at <http://www.mlp-agm.com>.

Election nominations pursuant to § 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG)

Every shareholder has the right to make election nominations at the Annual General Meeting within the scope of § 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) without any notice, publication or other special action being required prior to the Annual General Meeting. Nominations of shareholders in the sense of § 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), which reach the Company at the address stated below no later than 14 days prior to the day of the Annual General Meeting, which neither includes the day of receipt nor the day of the Annual General Meeting itself, meaning that all information must be received no later than the end, that is 12:00 midnight, of June 1, 2016, and meet all other requirements with regard to the Company's disclosure obligations will be published immediately, including the name of the shareholder, any justification for the nominations (which, unlike counter-motions in the sense of § 126 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), is not necessary) and any statement by the Company's management, on the Company's website at <http://www.mlp-agm.com>.

Pursuant to § 127 Sentence 1, in connection with § 126 (2) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), and § 127 Sentence 3, in connection with §124 (3) Sentence 4 and § 125 (1) Sentence 5 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), there are other reasons that, if applicable, would mean that election nominations do not have to be published via the website. These are described on the Company's website, together with further notes on the right to propose candidates pursuant to § 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) at <http://www.mlp-agm.com>.

Any and all election nominations must be sent to the following address:

In accordance with § 131 (1) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), every shareholder is entitled to information from the Executive Board on the Company's affairs, including the Company's legal and business relations with affiliated companies, and on the position of the Group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements, upon request in the Annual General Meeting to the extent that this is required to make an informed judgement on any given agenda item. Furthermore, upon request in the Annual General Meeting, every shareholder or shareholder's representative is entitled to information from the Executive Board on all matters which are essential in the context of the conclusion of the agreement of the subsidiary named under Item 6 as per § 293g (3) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). Under certain conditions, described in greater detail in § 131 (3), Sentence 1 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), the Executive Board may refuse to provide information.
