1. Highlights and Results 9M and Q3 2008

Cheuvreux German Corporate Conference 2009

January 19 - 21, 2009

Highlights – Overall market developments 9M 2008

- Extremely difficult market environment
- Capital market crisis has
 - led to a loss of confidence among retail and institutional customers
 - spread out to the whole economy and lowered expectations regarding future economic development
- Old-age pension provision market: New business has been flat and this is currently a “crowding out” market
- Wealth management market: Inflows into funds decreased – despite introduction of a flat-rate withholding tax on capital gains from 2009
- Private health insurance market: New business decreased significantly due to health insurance reform in 2007

Highlights – 9M and Q3 2008

- MLP has successfully implemented the new regulatory rules and regulations
- Total revenues for 9M 2008 at previous year's level
- Business development indirectly influenced by capital market crisis
 - Customers reluctant to make long-term investment decisions
 - Sluggish new business in wealth management
 - Lower recurring and performance fees in wealth management business due to the fall in capital markets
- Unexpected loss at TPC
